

Voice or Speaker	the speaker in a poem which could be the poet or a character the poet created
Line	a single line of text from left to right
Stanza Poem A	a group of lines separated by a space
Rhyme Scheme	the pattern of rhymes within the poem

Use letters of alphabet to represent each rhyme.

I Met a Dragon Face to Face
by Jack Prelutsky

1. I met a dragon face to face a
  2. The year when I was ten. b
  3. I took a trip to outer space. a
  4. I braved a pirate's den. b
  5. I wrestled with a wicked troll. c
  6. And fought a great white shark. d
  7. I trailed a rabbit down a hole. c
  8. I hunted for a snark. d
-
9. I stowed aboard a submarine.
  10. I opened magic doors.
  11. I traveled in a time machine.
  12. and searched for dinosaurs.
  13. I climbed atop a giant's head.
  14. I found a pot of gold.
  15. I did all this in books I read
  16. When I was ten years old.

Stanza
Stanza = Paragraph of a poem
Stanza

Anatomy of a Poem Name Key

1. Who is the speaker of this poem?

(Be as specific as possible using common sense.)

The speaker is someone older than 10, remembering when he was 10 and reading books. 😊

2a. How many lines is this poem? 16

2b. What animal is mentioned in line 7? rabbit

3. How many stanzas is this poem? 2

4a. Label the rhyme scheme of the first stanza on the poem itself.

(Remember to start with "a".)

4b. Write out the stanza's rhyme scheme here (horizontally):

ababcdcd