

BELL RINGER RESPONSE SHEET: WEEK 22

"Six Minutes" Monday

1. Begin with: In this episode of "Six Minutes," ...
2. Write 3 sentences of summary: name names
3. Write 1 sentence of prediction

Holiday ~ Cyrus ~ Birdie ~ Badger ~
Mr Anders (dad) ~ Dr Anders (mom)

AVOID DEAL BREAKERS!

*Capitalize "I" *Use apostrophes: n't

Tuesday TERMS

1. Because there were few tourists on the island, the beaches were still pristine and beautiful.

I THINK PRISTINE MEANS: _____

PRISTINE DEFINITION: _____

2. Your first year of college is sure to debunk your belief that studying is unnecessary.

I THINK DEBUNK MEANS: _____

DEBUNK DEFINITION: _____

Wednesday WISE WORDS

1. Start with: When Dickinson said this, she was saying...
2. Say: I (dis)agree with this idea because...
3. Give a SUPPORTING DETAIL:
 - a. What does it make you think of?
 - b. What can it be compared to?
 - c. Give an example of the idea in real life.

Not knowing when the dawn will come I open every door: - Emily Dickinson

AVOID DEAL BREAKERS! Capitalize "I" ~
Use apostrophes in contractions ending in "n't"

Thursday THOUGHTS

FILL the ENTIRE BOX!

No more than a 2-letter's-worth of space between words.

AVOID DEAL BREAKERS: Use apostrophes: n't.

Capitalize "I" or you receive NO POINTS.

Who is the person that makes you laugh the most? How do they do it?

Friday FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE

1. CIRCLE the Spidy-Sense words. 2. LABEL the figurative language element in the sentence.

Simile
Metaphor
Personification
Onomatopoeia
Oxymoron
Idiom
Hyperbole
Allusion
Alliteration
Pun
Assonance
Synecdoche
Irony

1. Lee always gets 100% on his tests; he knows absolutely everything there is to know about math.

FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE: _____

2. Although Steve wasn't one to eat sweets, he had to admit that his mother's cheesecake was awfully good.

FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE: _____