

BELL RINGER RESPONSE SHEET: WEEK 28

Monday Of Mice and Men

PROMPT: Which character from Of Mice and Men interests you the most and why? Explain that character's situation, what they want, whether or not they get what they want, what their mistake is, whether or not they change as a person in the story, AND a theme that they reveal to the reader. (THEMES: The American Dream, Friendship, Loneliness, Victim of Bigotry, Perpetrator of Bigotry)

AVOID DEAL BREAKERS: Use Capital "I" ~ Use apostrophe in contractions ending in "n't" ~ FILL THE ENTIRE BOX.

Tuesday TERMS

1. Because the fireman rescued five children from a burning building, he receive an accolade from the mayor.

I THINK ACCOLADE MEANS: _____

ACCOLADE DEFINITION: _____

2. When the shocking verdict was read, there was bedlam in the courtroom.

I THINK BEDLAM MEANS: _____

BEDLAM DEFINITION: _____

Wednesday WISE WORDS

*You can destroy your now
by worrying about your tomorrow. - Janis Joplin*

1. Start with: When Janis Joplin said this, she was really saying that...

2. Say: I can (don't) see what she means because...

3. Give a SUPPORTING DETAIL:

a. What does this make you think of?

b. What can this idea be compared to?

c. Give a real-life example of this idea.

AVOID DEAL BREAKERS!! Capitalize "I" ~ Use apostrophes in contractions ending in "n't"

